PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ATELIER ACTARA , Houston, TX	March 2026 to Present
Chief Communications Officer
- Established the communications function from zero as a founding team member at a fashion tech startup, setting the brand voice, messaging frameworks, and editorial standards - Set the channels, cadences, and editorial calendar the team uses to plan campaigns and key communications milestones - Advise the founding team on messaging decisions and how the company presents itself to clients, partners, and the fashion industry - Write copy for product features, communications for users, and promotional campaigns to support platform growth and user acquisition - Use Claude daily for first drafts and Claude Code for edits to the homepage and app, personally reviewing every post and GitHub pull request before anything goes live
AON , Houston, TX	July 2022 to June 2025
Consultant, Strategic Communication
- Advised enterprise clients across industries on internal communication and change strategy, primarily for United States and Canadian operations with occasional international work - Led change communications for large HR initiatives and corporate transactions, delivering complex news on health and retirement benefits, total rewards, and pay transparency to full employee populations - Led leadership interviews to shape the employer value proposition during the integration of an American company and a Korean company - Interviewed leaders to align messaging and gauge employee sentiment before recommending what to address, then wrote talking points and messaging in each leader's voice

- Partnered with leaders, legal, HR, and other stakeholders to keep every message accurate, aligned, and easy to understand
- Influenced client stakeholders without direct authority and made recommendations to senior leaders on message strategy and timing
- Designed and ran multichannel employee engagement campaigns supporting culture building and change management
- Owned complex programs from strategy through delivery, kept them on time through shifting client priorities, and coached team members through execution
